

The Intelligencer.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 5.

THE CITY.—The city is infested with a gang of half grown boys, who bid fair to outdo the galleys. They are now practicing the art of stealing in a small way by robbing out-houses, cellars and pantries of all articles of provision upon which they can lay their hands. Several cases occurred last week in which families were robbed of all the canned fruit which they had put up for the season. In one instance, a lot of tomatoes were taken which did not seem to be palatable. A few cans were broken open and the remainder abandoned. In another instance, the parties were seen in the act, and the proprietor, arming himself with a gun, took deliberate aim, but his heart failed him, and he allowed them to escape unharmed. While it appears hard to shoot an individual in cool blood, yet it is likely to prove the only remedy for the depredations which are becoming matters of daily occurrence. A few doses of buckshot, properly administered, would bring these young thieves to a realizing sense of the danger in which they stand. One gentleman informs us that he would be able to identify the rogues who robbed his premises. We would urge citizens to keep a sharp look out for these provision stealers.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, yesterday, a considerable amount of business was presented and noted upon. The following were the items of most public interest:

The former Board of Supervisors had ordered the opening of a road along the river to Glenn's Run, through lands belonging to the estate of A. P. Woods, and the lands of Robert Marshall. The Commissioner appointed to superintend the work reports that he has it all completed and fences built, except a short distance on the lands of Mr. Marshall. At this point the land condemned for the purpose has been washed away by the action of the river on the bank, and the road cannot be completed without further action by the Board. Messrs. Boggs, Nichols and Good were appointed to make an examination and report at the next meeting of the Board.

Numerous applications for tavern licenses were presented, but were all rejected. This, we believe, is a final settlement of this question for the present year.

The bill for repairing the bridge across Jonathan's Gut, amounting to $1,204, was presented, and the one-half due from the county ordered to be paid. The remaining half is due from the city.

Mr. Thomas J. Blair, Justice for Madison township, tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and Mr. James McConnell appointed to fill the vacancy.

Much of the business coming before the board, was referred to the standing committees, which are composed as follows:

On Finance—Messrs. Wilson, Hupp, and Handlin.

On Accounts—Hupp, Wilson, and Good.

Court House and Jail—Wallace, Clayton and Salisbury.

POLICE COURT.—Several cases were tried yesterday, and fines assessed to the amount of forty-two dollars. The majority of them were for fighting and using profane language. There was only one case, however, that attracted any particular interest. A native of the Emerald Isle was arrested on Saturday and placed in the city lock up, charged with drawing a revolver on a gentleman who boarded at the same hotel with the prisoner. The purport of the evidence was, that the parties had some conversation of a political character, when the prisoner asked the other party if he was a Lincoln man; upon being answered in the affirmative, he remarked that Lincoln was an old fool, and that he ought to have been killed long ago, and that Jeff Davis was the only man fit to rule over this country. The gentleman told him he must not talk to him in that way, or if he did, he would knock him down with a chair. They parted, but met again in a few minutes, when the conversation was renewed, and the prisoner repeated his language. His opponent partially raised the chair to strike when the prisoner drew from his bosom a revolver about the size of a blunderbuss. Officer Vail being present stepped between them, and arrested the armed man. After hearing all the evidence, the Judge fined the prisoner five dollars and costs. The pistol man then preferred a charge of assault against his opponent, the evidence being substantially the same as in the former case, the chair man was fined a like amount. The Judge admonished the parties that political conversations of such a character should be avoided, and that in the eyes of the law, no words, however provoking, were sufficient cause for assault.

CALL AND SEE THEM.—The old and well known firm of J. M. Dillon & Co. has recently been enlarged by the addition of several new members, all of whom are practical mechanics and business men. And as will be seen from their advertisement, they are prepared to furnish all kinds of material and do all kinds of work connected with the Plumbing and Gas Fitting business. Give them a call, at the old stand, on Market street.

RIVER.—Yesterday evening the river was falling, with 7 1/2 feet in the channel. The Revenue departed for Parkersburg and the Forest City for Pittsburgh.

The Beulah was sold yesterday to Capt. G. E. Boley for $12,000 cash. She will leave for New Orleans this evening at five o'clock.

The New State is the Parkersburg pocket this morning. She leaves at half past ten.

BROKE JAIL.—Last week three men confined in the Marion county jail, upon a charge of horse stealing, succeeded in effecting their escape. Owing to their desperate character they had been placed in irons. These they found means to remove, and when the jailer entered their cell they knocked him down and locked him in, and then took their departure. We are not fully informed as to particulars, but understand that one of the party had his leg broken. We suppose that this was caused by leaping from a window or wall. Two of the men were brothers, named X and Y, and were told that they made several trips back to Marion county, carrying off horses and running them into the rebel lines. At the conclusion of the war they returned home and were arrested, and for a long time were confined in the jail in this city. Some two or three months ago they were removed to Fairmont, where they have since been confined up to the time of their escape.

TAKE NOTICE.—The public schools have again been reopened, and it is presumed that many of the pupils will need books and stationery. We, therefore, desire to say that J. C. Orr & Co. have a most complete assortment of everything usually found in a first class book store. Books for the lawyer, philosopher and statesman, books for the child and the man, pens, pencils, inks, and papers of every quality and kind, and last, though not least, the proprietors and their clerks are clever and accommodating gentlemen. Read their advertisement, which appears this morning.

SOLD FOR TAXES.—A large amount of delinquent property, lying in the city and county, was sold by the sheriff yesterday, for the taxes. Several important purchases were made, which we will notice at our leisure.

ST. VINCENT'S CLASSICAL AND MERCANTILE COLLEGE.—We have been requested to state, that this institution will not open for the reception of students till next Monday, the 11th inst.

SPECTACLES FOUND.—A pair of spectacles, in a black case, was found on the street yesterday, which the owner can have by paying for this notice.

SCHOOL BOOKS.—Joseph Graves has for sale a large assortment of School Books, School Stationery, &c. Also all the new School Books adopted by the State Superintendent for the Public Schools.

Unseasonable increase of heat in the last few days, renders it necessary for many to use a tonic and corrective, in order to prevent ill consequences from errors in diet. Logan's Essence of Jamaica Ginger is an elegant article for this purpose, and should be in every family. Sold by T. H. Logan & Co., and Logan, List & Co., Druggists, Wheeling.
